

Advanced Mediation Training

“Reentry and Transition Circles Training”

The Center is piloting a Reentry and Transition Circles project in Ontario County. The circles are designed to promote successful reintegration of female inmates by strengthening family and community supports, offering opportunities for family repair, healing and the creation of a written transition plan for each inmate.

Persons interested in participating in this program should be experienced mediators, with an interest in restorative justice practices. Mediators must be willing to facilitate circles inside the Ontario County Jail and able to work non-judgmentally with women convicted of crimes.
